Russian Fleet Reported Slowly Approaching the Japanese Base.

Vladivostok Fleet Said to be Moving to Join Baltic-- Battle Again Rumored.

Tokio, May 27.—It is rumored here that the Japanese and Russian fleets under Vice Admiral Togo and Vice Admiral Rojstevsky have engaged in the Korean straits.

BELIEVED IN LONDON.
London, May 27.—While there is no confirmation of the Tokio rumor that the Japanese and Russian fleets engaged in battle in the Korean Strait, naval and military men who have watched the situation closely think it may prove true.

The Russians have gone closer and closer to the Japanese fleet and it is the opinion that Togo is about ready to give battle on a ground of his own choosing.

VLADIVOSTOK FLEET LEAVES.
Tsin-tan, May 27.—A private telegram received here says the Russian Vladivostok fleet has left Vladivostok, going in a southerly direction.

In Korean Straits.
London, May 27.—A dispatch to the Reuter Telegram company from Tokio states that Rojstevsky is off Tsin-tan in the Korean Straits.

May Have Divided Fleet.
Shanghai, May 27.—There are indications that Rear Admiral Rojstevsky has divided his fleet. Seventeen vessels of the Baltic fleet anchored at Saddle Islands Thursday night. It is believed they coaled there and that from that point they will proceed north.

A dispatch to Lloyds from Shanghai says it is reported that several Russian war vessels have arrived off the Saddle Islands, a group of 25 small islands situated about 60 miles south east of Shanghai.

The dispatch adds that three vessels of the Russian volunteer fleet, the Vladimir, Voronej and Yaroslav, and three colliers, Livonia, Meteor and Curonia, are anchored off Shanghai.

The Partition of China.
London, May 27.—The Times' correspondent at St. Petersburg says that Russia's decision to extend the area of hostilities into Mongolia has evoked sentiments akin to consternation among diplomats there. It is regarded, he says, as the first step toward annexation and the opening up of the question of the partition of China.

Ordered Russians Away.
Shanghai, May 27.—The Russian war vessels that went in the Saddle Islands left last night.

The Chinese authorities ordered the Russian volunteer fleet anchored off Woosung to leave within 24 hours. The Russians thus far have entirely ignored the order.

Land Situation Unchanged.
Tokio, May 27.—The following statement was given out from army headquarters today: "Thursday our cavalry northeastward occupied Tsuin Cheng, eighteen miles north of Changtu. Otherwise with the exception of small collisions between detached parties of both sides, the situation is unchanged."

Frisco-C. & E. I. Preparing to Issue $55,000,000 in Improvement Bonds.

Chicago, Ill., May 27.—The directors of the Eastern Illinois line of the Frisco, have decided to make a new issue of $55,000,000 of fifty-year 4 per cent. bonds. The proposition will be placed before the stockholders at a special meeting, which has been called for Chicago on June 29. Of the total authorization, $34,620,000 will be used for retiring the bonded indebtedness under existing mortgages. The balance of the funds will be used for the construction of additions and improvements to the property, for providing additional equipment and for reimbursing the company for expenditures made since July 1, 1902. These expenditures include the construction of the new double-track line between Chicago vate advices of an entirely authentic nature received this morning announce that more than twenty-one Russian vessels, including three battleships and three cruisers are off Saddle Islands, about sixty miles southeast of Shanghai.

Tension Is Great.
St. Petersburg, May 27.—The tension in naval circles is intense. A meeting of the Russian and Japanese fleets is expected hourly.

PADUCAH BOY.
Is Being Considered For a Good Position at St. Louis.

St. Louis, May 27.—Julius Rothschild, aged thirty years, formerly of Paducah, is being considered by Mayor Wells for the position of secretary of the municipal bridge commission, appointed recently by the mayor to inquire into bridge arbitrary matters. Mayor Wells appointed a committee to select a name to be presented to him. This committee has reported the name of Julius Rothschild. The mayor, who had never seen Mr. Rothschild, sent for him and had a talk with him. Mr. Rothschild is chief clerk to the chief engineer of the Terminal company, and secretary of the St. Louis division of the Central association of railroad officers, but received notice May 1, from the Terminal company that his position would be abolished in thirty days.

The young man mentioned in the above dispatch formerly worked for the Illinois Central in Paducah, and for many years lived here. He is a brother of Mr. Joe Rothschild, the well known drummer, and of Mr. Adolph Rothschild, formerly with the Stark-Ullman Sadlery company here.

The Extra Session.
May Be Postponed a Month by the President.

Washington, May 27.—The president is seriously considering postponement of the date promised for the extra session of congress from the middle of October until a month later. Senator Cullom after calling at the White House today, said he sincerely hoped there would be no extra session.

Mystery Still Unsolved.
Savannah, Ill., May 27.—The body of Druggist Bothwell lay in state today at his home and the funeral will occur tomorrow. The authorities made no effort to solve the murder of Daniel S. Berry last Monday.

Woman Was Acquitted.
Decatur, Ill., May 27.—The jury today returned a verdict of not guilty in the case of Mrs. Nellie Louis, charged with assault with intent to kill. Several months ago she shot Dr. Rutenburg, a prominent physician, in his office in this city.

Scotland Captures Locomotive Contractor.

Glasgow, May 27.—Scottish contractors have received orders for a hundred locomotives from Japan. Their bids were lower than those submitted by Americans.

and St. Louis.
The company will also be authorized to make expenditures for the acquisition of additional and connecting railway properties and railway bridges.

The above in the opinion of some gives color to the persistent reports that the Frisco, which owns the C. & E. I., has bought the Tennessee Central, and has practically bought it, and is going to extend it to the C. & E. I. terminus at Jopka, Ill., passing through Paducah and giving the road ample funds with which to make the extensions and improvements, and the announcement of such extensive improvements is regarded by railroad men as significant.

RIOTING FIERCE IN LUMBER DISTRICT

Police in Some Cases Had to Shoot at the Mobs.

Mayor Dunne Seems to Have Abandoned Hope of a Peaceful Settlement.

BUILDING TRADES UNION ACTS.

Rioting broke out afresh yesterday in the Teamster's strike, and although nobody was seriously hurt there were a number of vicious fights.

A serious fight took place at Canal and Madison streets. A wagon of an express company, although protected by a policeman and a deputy sheriff was attacked by a large crowd. The policeman displayed his revolver but the crowd paying no attention to him rushed at the wagon and seizing the wheels attempted to overturn it. A riot call brought a large force of officers who dispersed the crowd and arrested forty of the most active in the disturbance.

The worst fight in the lumber district occurred at 22d street and Ashland avenue, where a crowd had all morning hurled stones and clubs at every passing lumber wagon. Finally a wagon on which Police Officer Bangs was a passenger, came along and the mob greeted it with the usual volley of stones. They also threatened to attack the driver and the situation grew so serious that the officer drew his revolver and fired six shots at the crowd which broke and fled in wild confusion.

None of the bullets hit anybody. Last night general rioting was prevalent throughout the lumber district. A large number of men armed with clubs, along shots and bricks, accompanied by jeering women and excited children, filled the sidewalks awaiting the passage of wagons, which were believed by the crowd to be unguarded. At Archer avenue and Loomis street two trucks appeared with one policeman on each. The trucks were immediately bombarded with bricks and stones and scores of air rifles were brought into play. A bullet from one of these weapons seriously wounded Policeman James Fitzpatrick in the right hand. The two policemen drew their revolvers and fired over the heads of the rioters, holding them at bay until the drivers managed to reach their destination.

A patrol wagon and detail of policemen were under command of Lieut. Mooney and as soon as he learned of the attack on the first two wagons he sent out the patrol wagon to protect others on the way. Stones were hurled at the patrol wagon and the police were forced several times to jump from the wagon and charge the mobs. A crowd of union pickets had been stationed in a saloon on 35th street to block the passage of the trucks.

Police dashed into the saloon, used their clubs freely and chased the pickets down the street. At 33rd street a special policeman pointed out a man wearing a union button and throwing bricks at the man who had fired the shot which wounded Policeman Fitzpatrick. After a lively chase the man was captured. A large, keen knife with an eight inch blade was taken away from him at the time of his arrest.

At a meeting of the Associated Building Trades last night at which 29 trades affiliated with building industries were represented, it was decided that no action will be taken which will tend to drag the building trades into the teamsters' strike. This action on the part of the building trades will go far toward restricting the strike to its present limits, as it means that members of the building trades unions will work with materials irrespective of the fact that they are hauled in wagons driven by non-union teamsters.

It was decided at the meeting to withdraw all the financial and moral support that the building trades unions have been giving the teamsters thus far in the strike. This means a loss to the teamsters of $1,000 a week which they have received from the building trades unions.

There is no movement on foot at present looking toward settlement of the strike. Mayor Dunne talks as though he has abandoned hope of a settlement.

CHICAGO ADVISOR.

Man From Glasgow Arrives on His Way to Chicago.

A RECEIVER.

Appointed for an Independent Telephone Company.
Shelbyville, Ky., May 27.—The Shelby Home Telephone company, which has recently spent much money in building a telephone system in this city and county and in the equipment of an exchange, etc., has gone into the hands of a receiver. The receiver was appointed by a court at Charleston, W. Va., and he is Mr. W. D. Payne, of that city, where also live Horner Dixon, president of the company, and all the other stockholders and directors, about whom anybody here knows anything.
Mr. Payne, the receiver, has sent here as his representative a Mr. H. W. Gillis, of Cleveland, O., who has taken charge of the company's property in this county, and has taken charge as manager of the exchange, etc.

RIOTING STOPS IN WARSAW WHEN SOLDIERS COME.

Warsaw, May 27.—Following a proclamation issued by the governor-general last evening, placing Warsaw under martial law, the streets were filled with soldiers today.

The result of the presence of soldiers was that rioting, which had been in progress several days, ceased.

The Jews are remaining in their homes to prevent giving an opportunity to the soldiers to begin a massacre.

NO SETTLEMENT

OF THE QUESTION OF FEDERATION BY PRESBYTERIANS.

The Discussion Was Long Drawn Out— The Merger Seemed to Be Preferable.

Fort Worth, Tex., May 27.—The forty-fifth general assembly of the Southern Presbyterian church has adjourned. Moderator Plunkett declared the body dissolved and at the same time called the next session to meet at Greenville, S. C., at 11 a. m. on the third Tuesday in May, 1906.

The discussion of the question of the federation was long drawn out and when the end came was as far from a final settlement as at any time during the debate which preceded the vote. There is an irreconcilable element in the church which manifested itself in great strength which is opposed to federation, and there is an element of slightly greater strength that favors it, but neither side could muster the necessary strength to bring the victory to their banner. In the end the whole matter was merely referred back to the same committee to which were added three more members to bring another plan of federation before the next assembly.

The amendment offered by Dr. Eugene Daniel regarding discontinuing the idea of federation at all was and his substitute regarding the report of the committee whereby the general assembly would say to the world that it was unable to accept the plan of federation outlined by the joint conference committee at Pittsburgh, Pa., last January was also lost. The original report of the special committee appointed by the general assembly to consider this matter was finally adopted by the body.

The vote on the question was a close one and was taken for the fourth time before a decision was reached, the last time being taken by calling the roll, when the vote stood 93 to 81 in favor of the report of the committee.

The dead: Clarence Sterrett, fireman, Nashville, Tenn.

BOARD OF WORKS BECOMING ACTIVE

The Market House Will be Kept Strictly Clean.

Market Master Smedley Ordered to Post Placards, "Spitting Prohibited," and Warrant Offenders.

UNHITCHED HORSE NUISANCE.

The board of public works this morning ordered Market Master Frank Smedley to have printed large placards "Spitting Prohibited," and post them in conspicuous places all over the market, and to warrant everyone he finds is guilty of a violation. The board intends to have the ordinance strictly enforced in all places over which it has control, one of which places is the market.

Receptacles will be placed around in the market for refuse of all kinds, and it is expected to make the place so clean that people will hardly recognize it.

Another thing the board is going to look after, is the habit of leaving horses unhitched on the streets, especially along Broadway. This morning a horse came near running away on the crowded thoroughfare because its owner had left it unhitched and it took fright at an automobile. Had not someone near seized it before it got a good start, it might have done a great deal of damage or killed someone.

It is bad enough to leave horses in the public streets to obstruct them, without leaving them unhitched, so they will be free to run away and kill someone," said a member of the board today. "There is an ordinance against leaving horses unhitched this way, and we are going to see if we can't have it enforced. If a police officer would get a warrant for the owner of every horse he sees unhitched on Broadway, it would not be long until they would all be hitched."

"We have induced some little activity in regard to leaving wagons and other vehicles in the streets, and are going to keep hammering away until we have some of these public nuisances and nuisances done away with."

In regard to the new street ward in Mechanicsburg, a member of the board of works said today that they hadn't the least objection to building the street, but that they didn't see how it could be done, because the general council cut down the street fund to the least possible notch before the tax levy was made, and there is not money enough now to make any necessary general improvements.

WEEK'S NEWS IN THE COMMERCIAL WORLD.

Clearings for the week...$766,632
Same week last year...583,282
Increase...$183,350

The main cause for such a big increase in clearings this week was the Gas company deal, amounting to $135,000. With this taken out, however, the increase is still over $48,000 showing a healthy growth in business for the week.

Reports indicate an improvement both in wholesale and retail trades, with a prospect of further advance. There is always a temporary depression after the carnival, but it seems to have passed Paducah up this time.

Bradstreet's weekly review of trade reports that wholesale trade is seasonably quiet, pending a clearer view of crop outlook, which, owing to irregular or unsettled weather in wide areas still lacks definite form. Cool weather is still a bar to the full activity at retail. Manufacturing activity is still in a large volume on orders previously booked. Collections reflect a little more than seasonal slowness, and money is easy and plentiful.

There is abundant evidence that the country's consumptive requirements are on a large scale, heavily exceeding a year ago at this time.

Cotton trade is experiencing a revival. Woolen goods are beginning to feel the influence of a great advance in raw material and higher prices for woolsens seem assured. Pig iron buying is at a standstill, only new business being some orders booked for foundry grades.

spring orders, and there is little idle machinery in textile lines.
Building operations make favorable comparisons with recent years, and there is little controversy regarding wages or hours of a year ago by 8.0 per cent. Money is abundant and easy.

Bank Clearings.
New York, May 26.—Total bank clearings compiled by Bradstreet's for the past week $2,674,173,199, an increase 46.9 per cent. compared with the corresponding week last year.

The Kentucky Packing and Provision company has just held its first annual meeting at Louisville and reports showed an earning of 6 per cent. The first six months business amounted to $500,000, and improvements are to be made enabling the company to slaughter 500,000 hogs a year, increasing its business to $1,500,000 a year. Mr. Rush C. Watkins, formerly of Paducah, is president and general manager and Mr. Harry Aschcraft, formerly of Paducah, and son of Major J. H. Aschcraft, is secretary and treasurer.

Thomas Emmerson has been made manager of the Cumberland Telephone office at Mayfield, succeeding R. A. McCurdy, who goes either to Nashville or to some point in Mississippi. Mr. Emmerson formerly worked for the East Tennessee company in Paducah as lineman.

A survey of "Stone Hill," near Cedar Bluff, is now being made to ascertain how much stone it contains. It is the desire of the Katterjohn Construction company to double its capacity, as it has many big contracts in sight if it can fill them, and it desires first to learn how much stone its land contains before agreeing to take any additional contracts.

Col. Ben Weille and other members of the Commercial club appointed to organize branches in the county, have ascertained that this is a busy time for the farmers, and it is not advisable to undertake the organization of the branches now. They have accordingly postponed the work until the farmers are over their rush.

Mr. Ed. Jones, the commission merchant, is now packing his household goods preparatory to moving to Biloxi, Miss., where his two sons, Bert and Charles, are now in charge of the business he has just opened up. His other son, Arthur, will remain in the commission business.

LIGHTNING FREAK

MR. ED WEATHERINGTON AND FAMILY HAVE CLOSE CALL.

Thunderbolt Went Through the Room and Dashed Out the Door— Mrs. Weatherington Hurt.

Mr. Ed Weatherington, who resides on the Buckner road about two miles beyond Wallace park, came to the city today and reported an unusual lightning freak, as a result of which he and his family came near being killed.

During the hard rain late Thursday afternoon, a bolt of lightning struck his house, tore a hole in the roof, knocked off the chimney, and passing into the room in which they were sitting, blazed out the screen door, tearing a huge hole and filling the room with splinters.

Mrs. Weatherington, his wife, was standing about five feet from the door and one of the splinters struck her on the left leg near the knee, twisting her clothing as it penetrated the flesh, and leaving a painful but not serious wound, which fortunately is not deep on account of the protection afforded by her skirt.

Her right limb was left as if some one had struck it a powerful blow with a club, and was perfectly numb for quite awhile.

Mr. Weatherington's mother and brother were also in the room, and were shocked by the lightning, but soon recovered with no worse effects than a severe headache.

The family regard their escape as miraculous, as they not only saw the lightning come down the chimney and dart out the door, but saw as well the evidences of it in the debris and charred splinters after it had made its exit. A strange part of the phenomenon was that although the lightning went out the door, the splinters nearly all flew inwards.

TORNADO AT COLBERT, I. T.

Reported Several Buildings and Dwellings Were Destroyed.
Kansas City, May 27.—A report has been received that a tornado struck Colbert, I. T., and several business houses and dwellings are reported destroyed. Colbert is a town of five hundred, near the Texas line.

A LONG AND NOBLE LIFE ENDED TODAY

Mrs. Sophia Rankin Died This Morning at One O'clock.

She Had Lived Here Since 1845 and Leaves Two Sons and Many Relatives.

FUNERAL SOMETIME MONDAY

Mrs. Sophia H. Rankin died this morning at 1 o'clock at the home of her sisters, Mrs. George Langstaff, and Mrs. Samuel Langstaff on Broadway. Mrs. Rankin had been ill since last March of dropsy and a complication of diseases, but had often rallied and had shown wonderful vitality and strength. Although quite ill again last night, the end came suddenly and was a great shock to her many friends throughout the city.

In the death of Mrs. Rankin a very beautiful, long and useful life was closed. She was 86 years of age and wore her years with a fine grace, never losing her charm and vital interest in the life of those around her. She was in all the highest sense of the word, a gentlewoman of the old school and had always leisure from herself to soothe and sympathize.

Mrs. Rankin was formerly Miss Sophia H. Smith, of Louisville, and was born in that city. She was married there in 1840 to Mr. Adam Rankin, and they moved to Paducah in 1845. Mr. Rankin was cashier of the first bank in Paducah and was a leading citizen. He has been dead a number of years. She leaves two sons, Mr. Henry Rankin, of the Langstaff-Orme Manufacturing Co., this city, and Mr. James Rankin, a prominent resident of Henderson, Ky. The grandchildren are Miss Nellie Kirkland, Miss Sophia Kirkland, Mr. Rankin Kirkland of this city, children of her only daughter; Mrs. Lawrence Dallon, and Mr. Harris Rankin, also of Paducah, and Mrs. William Getz, of Chicago, and Edwin Rankin, of Henderson. There is one great-grandchild little Henry Rankin Dallon. Only two sisters survive her, Mrs. George Langstaff, and Mrs. Samuel Langstaff, with whom she made her home in recent years. She leaves a number of nieces and nephews.

Mrs. Rankin's life here is identified with much of the history and social life of Paducah, and her friends and admirers are legion throughout the city. She was a devoted member of the Grace Episcopal church and is identified with its earliest history and later growth.

No funeral arrangement will be made until Mr. James Rankin from Henderson arrives, but it will take place sometime Monday and from Grace Episcopal church.

Killed by a Farmer.

Lewisburg, Tenn., May 27.—James Stewart, a farmer, shot and killed Moses Henson, colored, here. Henson had insulted Stewart's daughter, and came to Lewisburg looking for the negro. He armed himself with a shotgun, and finding the negro near the public square, opened fire on him. After the first shot the negro made no attempt to run, and said to Stewart: "You've got the wrong man." The negro was regarded as a bad character. Stewart surrendered.

Chief of Police Shot.

Jackson, Tenn., May 27.—Yesterday A. D. Dugger shot and seriously wounded Chief of Police Gaston. Four shots were fired, two of which took effect. Dugger was drinking and Gaston attempted to arrest him. Dugger was arrested.

Frost in Wisconsin.

St. Paul, Minn., May 27.—Specials from points in northern Wisconsin report that heavy frost last night did great damage to garden truck and small fruits and berries.

Platt Was Invincible.
Vincennes, May 27.—J. Dugan, the right handed prize twirler for the local organization, and whose career are something awful, was located after the first few innings yesterday for a scandalous bunch of hits. Had it not been for the sensational fielding which backed him the score would have run up to countless numbers. Wiley Platt was on the slab for the Indians and was invincible. He stepped the Vincennes batters and left them standing in bunches at the plate. Umpire Bush, who succeeds like, was the doctor, and created an exceedingly good impression. Score.

My, What a Jolt.
Henderson, May 27.—Manager-Pitcher Harry Kubitz occupied the box for the "Hens" yesterday and in spite of an idea entertained by the fans that he would pitch a shutout game he was caught napping at every stage and hammered all over the surrounding territory. Percy Wilder was "at himself" and let the local organization off with but one measly, ungenerous little hit, and that more a stretch than anything else. Three errors by the Giants let in the lonesome score for the "Hens" which they would not have had were it not for the kindly spirit of one or two of the men on the team. Score.

Henderson 1 1 1
Cairo 12 12 3

Hopkinsville Wins By Accident.
Princeton, May 27.—Although the "Infants" outbatted their opponents almost two to one, and up to the seventh played circles around them, in that inning three errors, including wild throws, allowed the winning runs to cross the plate. Akers out-pitched Purdue and was entitled to a shutout game, up to the fatal inning not allowing his victims a chance at the much desired register. Score.

Hopkinsville 3 4 3
Princeton 1 7 4
Batteries—Purdue and Rutledge, Akers and Downing, Umpire, Zinkins.

Down the hill goes Paducah. Lost again yesterday and they were given a sound trouncing. Remember the prediction that the Indians would hit the slide when they left their own dugouts. The Vincennes Commercial predicts that Wiley Platt will go up in booze and leave Paducah in the lurch ere long. Let the Paducah team lose two or three games and watch the majority of them join the funnel gang.—Henderson Gleaner.

The above is a fair sample of the knocks Paducah is receiving from the papers in K. I. T. league cities. But we know its all from envy and because Paducah has played the best ball in the league this season. So we don't mind.

Alice had a chance to do things to Wiley Platt yesterday, but she didn't do it except to the extent of four measly hits. That's not much to brag about.

Princeton Players Released.
Hoople, catcher, and Hoople, first baseman, have been released by Manager Ray, who is in charge of the Princeton incubator. Hoople was not fast enough to hold down the initial sack, although he was a good hitter. Walters though a good man behind the bat had also with it, man behind the bat and also with it, was not needed as Manager Ray intends to keep but one catcher.—Cairo Bulletin.

Old Cairo Player to Princeton.
Manager Ray has signed T. J. Smith, a second baseman, who has been with Cedar Rapids, Iowa, in the Three Eye league. Smith was with Cairo two years ago and was drafted by Nashville in the Southern and after last season played with Clarksville. Smith will be here Friday and will play second base and captain the team. McGill has asked to be relieved of the captaincy on account of his being in the outfield.—Princeton Tribune.

If the Indians and Vincennes keep scrapping and winning one and losing one they may put themselves in such a position that another team winning steadily will pass them both. Wiley has redeemed himself in the eyes of the fans where his wigwag is located. Did it by winning his game yesterday. His plaster of Paris figure will occupy a pedestal for a few more days now, until he loses another and then it will likely fall off and be broken to pieces.—Cairo Bulletin.

Amateur Games.
The L. A. L. and I. C. Centrals will play at the shop grounds Sunday and in the afternoon the Centrals will go to Metropolis to play a team of that city.

The Famous will go to Princeton to play the Princeton team and in to play the Princeton team.

The batteries for the L. A. L. will be Theobald and Andrech and for the Centrals Sutherland and Smith. The Famous battery will be Douglas and Hayes.

Crack Colored Team Here.
The Dyersburg colored baseball team arrived this morning at 1 o'clock to play Ben Boyd's colored team of this city. Boyd's team has the reputation of being the crack colored team of the south and there will be a series of three games played.

The Official Standing.
President Charles Brown, of the K. I. T. league, yesterday wired the official scorer and Secretary Gossnell, of Vincennes, to find out the true score to Thursday's game between Henderson and Vincennes. The Cairo papers gave Henderson the victory but the other papers gave it to Vincennes, even the Henderson papers. An answer was received yesterday afternoon late stating that Vincennes won by a score of 4 to 1, which settles all doubts about the game, and leaves the correct standing of clubs as given in today's paper.

SENATORS QUIT EEL BALL.

Stahl's Twirlers Find Delivery Tells on a Pitcher's Arm.

In the course of a little time the famous "spit" or "eel" ball will be no more to a pitcher than the ordinary curves and change of pace with which he is equipped now, according to the twirlers Jake Stahl carries on his staff of box artists. That style of delivery, they say, will gradually be dropped, except as an occasional eel ball will be mixed in with the others to keep the batter guessing, but so far as using it exclusively it will be a thing of the past.

The cause for this change is that the eel ball tells on a pitcher's arm and the box artist who has any regard for his future in the game will not take a chance of utter ruin for the sake of a temporary advantage.

"Practically all of our pitchers developed that spit ball this spring," said one of Stahl's twirlers this morning at the Lexington hotel, "and it was generally agreed that a good deal of our success was due to the condition of the pitchers and the kind of ball they pitched. But it wasn't long until they began to complain about their arms and the only cause that could be found for the soreness was this same effective spit ball. We have been watching it closely and it is our general belief that in a short time that style of delivery will be relegated to the everyday commonplace styles; along with curves and change of pace.

"Chesbro was put out of the game through too great a use of this ball. Case Patten, for us, was rendered ineffective from the same cause, and so it has been and is sure to be whenever a pitcher uses that ball to the exclusion of the old style of pitching."

"If the cares of life bet you, or fret you, we'll bet you a Sun want ad will get you—an antidote."

Not As Poor As He Looked.

Elbert Hubbard was condemning a certain popular novel.

"This novel," he said, "is as poor and barren as Elmo county land."

"Is Elmo county land very poor and barren?" asked one of Mr. Hubbard's interlocutors.

"Is it?" said he. "Well, I should say it is. Once two strangers rode on horseback through Elmo county, and the barrenness of the land amazed them. Nothing but weeds and rocks everywhere. As they passed a farmhouse they saw an old man sitting in the garden, and they said:

"Poor chap! Poor, poverty-stricken old fellow!"

"The old man overheard them, and called out in a shrill voice:

"Gents, I han't so poor an poverty-stricken as ye think. I don't own none o' this land."

The Week In Society.

LOVE'S SEASON.

O Sweetheart, now your garden flowers are fair:
Why heed at all the clouds that yet may lower?
That love is best which has no thought of care
Beyond the passing hour.

It is enough that we are glad today,
And we may joy, in hours of wintry gloom,
That once we gathered roses on our way
While roses were in bloom.

—Eugene C. Dolson.

Social Quietude.

These latter days of May have been quiet socially, and there is every promise of an exit quite in keeping with the prevailing monotony, for there is little on the calendar for the coming week. Although the summer heat and relaxation is not on as yet, the entertaining is beginning to partake of the season in advance, and is so informal that all previous announcement is tabooed, which is hard on the social calendar. The clubs, too, which one could always count on as on a friend in need, have one by one gone into that "innocuous desuetude" that former "President" Cleveland would doubtless like to consign them to, but then he has never been a society reporter, or he would not so regard them.

For June, the month of days so rare, there is little in perspective as yet, but weddings, and they promise to redeem the time from dullness.

Some June Weddings.

Announcement was made this week of the approaching marriage of Miss Enna Richardson and Mr. Charles F. Wiltach, of this city, at the First Baptist church Wednesday, June 7, at 9 o'clock in the morning. Rev. J. S. Cheek, D. D., of the First Baptist church, will perform the ceremony. There will be no attendants but the ushers, who are Mr. Frank H. Hecker, Jr., of St. Louis, Mr. Charles Richardson, Mr. Fred Roth and Dr. Will V. Owen, of this city. After the bridal trip north the couple will make their home in Paducah.

Miss Richardson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Richardson, of South Third street. She is of attractive personality and winning manners and is popular in a large circle. Mr. Wiltach is the efficient secretary of the Paducah Water company. He is a clever and popular young man, with a host of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. James White, of Athens, Ga., announced this week the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Rosina White, to Mr. William F. Bradshaw, Jr., of this city.

The wedding is to take place at the First Presbyterian church, of Athens on Wednesday evening, June 21, at 8:30 o'clock. Rev. Dr. Walden, pastor of that church, will perform the ceremony.

Miss White is one of the most charming girls in Athens and is of much reputed beauty and attractiveness.

Mr. Bradshaw is one of the foremost young men of Paducah and is a rising young attorney.

Among the Paducahans who will attend the wedding are: Hon. and Mrs. W. F. Bradshaw, Hon. and Mrs. Wheeler Campbell, Miss Eloise Bradshaw, Mr. Louis Riecke, Jr., and Mr. Thomas B. Harrison.

Invitations have been received here to the wedding of Miss Pearl Van Eman and Prof. Archibald Turner, of University Place, Nebraska, on June 7 at 6 o'clock in the evening. Miss Van Eman formerly lived in Paducah and made many friends here. She went to Nebraska to reside some years ago.

Cards announcing the marriage at Louisville on June 7 of Miss Emma Pringle Watts and Mr. Edward Harry Hurst were received here this week. The wedding will take place at the Trinity Methodist church. Mr. Hurst is a well known newspaper man and cartoonist and was formerly on the Paducah News-Democrat.

Jefferson Davis Birthday Celebration. The James T. Walbert camp of Confederate Veterans and the Paducah chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, will celebrate Jefferson Davis' birthday, June 3, with appropriate ceremonies at the county court house next Saturday evening. An attractive program has been arranged and the joint affair promises to be in every way a pretty honor to the dead chief of the Confederacy. The Daughters of the Confederacy will also confer the Crosses of Honor on about twenty-five veterans who have not yet received them, that evening.

The program will be:
Music by band.

Prayer.

Song—Children of the Confederacy.

Recitation—Mrs. Flora Mae Clark Young.

Vocal Solo—Mr. Robert Scott.

Address.

Reading—Miss Frances Tempest Herndon.

Music—Quartette.

Song—Children of Confederacy.

Roll Call.

Presentation of Honor Crosses.

Response by Daughters of the Confederacy.

Mariposa Club Dance. The Mariposa club gave a dance at the Palmer house on Tuesday evening from 9 to 2 o'clock, in compliance to Miss Mattie Higginson, of Uniontown, Ky., the attractive guest of Miss Ella Hill, of Madison street.

It had been set for the first park dance of the season, but the cool weather made it a town affair. Like all of this club's dances it was a very delightful occasion. The music was by Hillman's band. The club will entertain again in about three weeks. Those present Tuesday evening were:

Mr. and Mrs. Max Hill, of Princeton; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Karnes; Mr. and Mrs. Ivo Pettit, Misses Mattie Higginson, of Uniontown; Ella Hill, Nellie Barry, Bertha Hill, Mary Geagan, Eva Matthews, Mabel Shelton, May Belle Beyer, Lena Shelton, Orville Thurman, Edna Wright, Clara Goodman, Jessie Rooks, Alma Coff; Messrs. Frank Rinkoff, J. D. McAllister, Gordon Barham, Wm. Kelley, Frank Judge, Ned Woolfolk, Roy Katterjohn, Clarence Weyman, F. M. McDowell, Howard Shelton, Frank Hill, Edgar Warren.

A Presentation to the Pope. Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Warner, of Nashville, have returned from a six-months' stay abroad, the winter being spent in Rome, and the Nashville Banner gives a description of their presentation to Pope Pius IX, accompanied by Monsignor John Farrelly formerly of Nashville.

It took place at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, and Mrs. Warner was gowned in a black velvet Paris gown, with diamond jewels and real lace mantilla. Mrs. Schiff's costume was similar, and Mr. Warner wore the evening suit conventional for such occasions even though they occur in the daytime.

Of the presentation Mrs. Warner said: "We knelt as the Pope entered the audience room with much dignity and impressiveness. He was accompanied by two Monsignors and two Cardinals. He was dressed in a pure white garment, falling in soft and graceful folds, barely escaping the floor, with a white cap. He wore a sash embroidered elaborately and fringed in gold, and bright scarlet shoes touched with gold. A gorgeous cross of emeralds six inches in length, each stone almost as large as a bird's egg fell from his neck, and the ring which we kissed as he passed down the aisle between the kneeling spectators, was set with a superb emerald.

"He stood in the center of the room before his departure and said clearly and solemnly, 'I give you my blessing, your families and all those you love, with all the religious articles in your possession.'

"The Pope's countenance is not so aristocratic as that of the late Pontiff, but it is very pure and good and very sad.

"Monsignor Farrelly, who returns to Nashville early this summer for a visit, is very sad just now by reason of the death of his niece, Miss Ruth Brooks, of Louisville, who passed away in Rome in February, after a brief illness. Miss Brooks was a beautiful and lovable young woman, who was spending the winter in Rome with a party of her friends, and her uncle was the only member of her family with her at her death."

Miss Brooks was known in Paducah, where she visited on two occasions and had warm friends here.

For the Summer Dance. Some of the devices employed by Englishwomen to render warm weather dances attractive might well be adopted by American hostesses. Electric fans are used, and large blocks of ice, made decorative, or else partially concealed, are employed in London to reduce the temperature of rooms. In order that the bridge "blends" may be satisfied, tables for the game are placed on landings and in odd corners and sitting-out places for devotees of the game. In floral decorations the preferred mode is the use of but one flower, or, at least, one color in flowers. At many of the handsome houses very few flowers are seen, foliage plants, with ferns and palms, constituting the only decorations. The dances often last until morning, so says an Eastern exchange.

The idea introduced by Lady Bute at one of her summer dances might well be carried out in this country, and would prove far more comforting to the inner man than most of the so-called "second suppers."

Poached eggs on toast and coffee and cocoa were the leading viands Lady Bute had served at early dawn.

West End Club. Mrs. W. A. Gardner was hostess to the West End club and some outside guests on Tuesday morning, entertaining very delightfully at cards at her home on Fountain avenue. The club prize was captured by Mrs. John Campbell and the visitor's prize was won by Mrs. Robert Becker Phillips.

An attractive course-luncheon was served at the conclusion of the game. The guests were: Mesdames Annette Cheney, of St. Louis; J. H. Baird, of Nashville; Leslie Samuels, of Bardonia; Victor Voris, Hal Corbett, L. A. Washington, Robert Reeves, Ben Welle, Luke Russell, S. H. Winstead, Linnaeus Orme, W. F. Bradshaw, M. G. Cope, Henry Bradley, Joseph Gardner, George C. Thompson, Joseph Friedman, John W. Keller, Miss Emma Reed.

Informal Afternoon Tea. Mrs. Alexander Kirkland entertained with an informal tea on Monday afternoon in honor of her sister, Mrs. Will J. Jones, of Chicago, who was en route from Eddyville, Ky., to her home. Mrs. Jones' stay here was limited to one day and the difficulty of seeing her friends in her former home, who are legion, was thus solved in a delightful impromptu way. The rooms were charming with spring flowers, and dainty refreshments were served.

"As You Like It." A large and fashionable audience witnessed the presentation of "As You Like It" by Paducah talent, assisted by Mrs. Flora Mae Clark Young, at the Kentucky theater on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Young as "Rosalind" gave an effective rendition, and the supporting cast were all popular favorites. The play was under the auspices of the woman's committee of the Y. M. C. A.

Church Reception. The congregation of the First Baptist church gave a pleasant reception on Tuesday evening in the church parlors in honor of their new pastor and wife, Rev. and Mrs. J. S. Cheek, who have recently arrived from Russellville. Delightful refreshments were served and the evening was most enjoyable.

Box Party at "As You Like It." An attractive box party at the performance of "As You Like It" was composed of Miss Elizabeth Schreie, Miss Marjorie Loving, Miss Henrie Alcott, Miss Helen Hills, Miss Garrett Buckner, Mr. Frank Judge, Mr. John Orme, Mr. Ned Ashbrook, Mr. Clay Kidd and Mr. Zack Hayes.

Informal Evening. The cast of "As You Like It" was delightfully entertained by Mrs. Flora Mae Clark Young at the Clark home on Clay street on Wednesday evening. It was a most pleasantly informal affair in celebration of their work together.

Song-Cycle and Recital. The repetition of the song-cycle, "In a Persian Garden," at the First Christian church on Thursday evening under the direction of Prof. Harry Gilbert was a pleasant feature of the week and was greeted by a large and appreciative audience. It was sung by Mrs. David M. Flournoy, Miss Mamie Dryfuss, Mr. Emmott Bagby and Mr. Robert Chastaine.

In addition Mr. Gilbert rendered several delightful organ numbers and Miss Hazel McCandless, of New York, gave some charming selections on the violin.

About People. Miss Meme Smith, of Owensboro, arrived Tuesday and is the very attractive guest of Miss Carline Sowell, on West Broadway.

Mrs. Henry Bradley and little son, Henry, left this week for Terre Haute, Ind., to visit Mrs. Bradley's sister, Mrs. James H. Black, formerly Miss Lena McKnight, of this city.

Mrs. Leslie B. Samuels returned to her home in Bardonia on Friday after a three weeks' visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Terrell, on Kentucky avenue. She was accompanied by her sisters, Miss Minnie Terrell and Miss Mattie Terrell, who will visit her.

Miss Nell Holland left this week for Cape Girardeau, Mo., where she will visit. Miss Holland is one of the past winter's debutantes and her attractive personality and vivacity have made her exceedingly popular. She will be the recipient of much social attention at the Cape.

Miss Evelyn Long, of Louisville, is the guest of Mrs. William E. Cochran at the Sans Souci Flats, on North Ninth street. Miss Long is exceedingly handsome and attractive and is very popular in Paducah, where she has often visited.

Mrs. John Rinkoff and guests, Mrs. George Rinkoff and Mrs. Chet De Witte, of Sandusky, O., Mrs. Pat Lally, Mrs. James Sherrill, Mrs. I. Young, Mrs. Frank Efinger, Mrs. Harry Meyers, Mrs. Will P. Hummel and Mrs. Will F. Katterjohn returned this week from a pleasant trip up the Tennessee river on the Kentucky.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Wallace and family have moved from their home on North Ninth street to their summer home in Arcadia.

Dr. Jessie Atkins, of Clarksville, Tenn., is visiting her sister, Mrs. T. H. Puryear on Jefferson street. She will return home on Monday.

Mrs. Minnie Herndon, who has been in Clarksville for the past several months, spent the week with her mother, Mrs. Amanda Wilhelm, on North Sixth street. Mrs. Herndon will return to Clarksville on Monday.

Baron Von Stam, of Amsterdam, Holland, has been the guest this week of Mr. Richard Scott on North Fourth street. He is a very delightful and cultured man, and designates himself proudly as a "southern American" by adoption. He and Mr. Scott have been friends for several years.

Test Examinations Will Begin Next Week—Questions Have Been Prepared.

The close of school is drawing near, and teachers are kept busy preparing for it. Yesterday afternoon a general teachers' meeting was held at the High school, and examination questions made out. This morning the principals met and went over the papers arranged by the teachers yesterday, and completed the work. Next week reviewing will cease and test examinations begin. This will be the last work of the pupils who have been reviewing two weeks and preparations for the close will be made.

The faculty, to which the matter of a closing entertainment was referred, has completed the program, but before it is given out will have to report back to the committee for ratification of the work. It is stated that some changes from the original arrangement will be made. There will be a freshman reception on Monday following the close of school, and on Tuesday evening another reception held by the sophomores. The juniors will probably have the most important feature in this line, having arranged to give a play entitled, "Arabian Nights." The cast has not been made out yet, but will be as soon as the committee ratifies the work of the faculty.

BEGINS WORK.

New Wire Inspector Will Be Rushed to Complete It in Five Months.

Mr. W. J. Gilsdorf, who was yesterday elected wire inspector for the city, went to work this morning and will not leave off where other inspectors left off, but will start the work over as if it had never been begun.

Inspector Gilsdorf has a great deal to do. He has to supervise all wiring in the city and when a new building is to be erected, before the wiring can be done the contractor or owner will have to go to Inspector Gilsdorf for a permit the same as builders have to go to City Engineer Washington for a building permit.

Commissioner Rose stated today the work would have to be carefully done, but that the inspector was a good man, and capable of doing it right. He will be pushed to get everything straightened out in five months.

 "Prudence in life means concentration."

A COLLEGE FOR PADUCAH.
 Kentucky is undergoing an educational rejuvenation, and the urgent need of better schools and improved colleges is at last being recognized. The state is growing, and as Kentucky is already behind many other states in educational facilities, the need for good and prompt work is all the more imperative.

The Lexington Herald says: "The educational leaders of the state have an opportunity to render the greatest possible service. There are many evidences that the people are ready to follow if practical plans are proposed, and capable leadership developed. Generally speaking, two things are absolutely necessary to marked improvement in the state's educational system. First of all there must be efficient administration of what we have, with consideration for politicians eliminated, and every dollar of the state's money expended for schools used with the sole purpose of getting the greatest possible good, not for those who live by public office, but for the school children of the state. In other words, there must be a capable administration of the state school system entirely divorced from politics. The next essential is popular interest in education. If these two things can be secured, and one will certainly contribute to the other, a few years will suffice to put Kentucky upon a very different plane educationally."

While the interest is on an increase, it would be well for someone to cast an eye towards Paducah as a location for a large, up-to-date college. A few years ago an attempt was made to establish an institution of this kind here and the site was selected, but for some reason the people failed to display the necessary interest, and the project went by the board.

There is not a large college in this part of the state. Every year dozens of our young people are sent to other cities to complete their education when there is no reason they should not be able to complete it at home—that is, no reason except that we haven't a college.

Paducah is growing rapidly. At the present rate nearly 1,000 new houses a year are built here, and our population is increasing at a lively rate, with new factories locating every year and new citizens coming in from all directions. Many estimate the average increase in population at 2,000 or 3,000 people a year, and a college ought to pay. It would attract hundreds of students from cities within a radius of hundreds of miles, and add no little to Paducah's prestige. The time is ripe for an educational institution of the kind mentioned. It is bound to come soon, and those who take the initiative now and get in ahead, will in a few years be congratulating themselves on their foresight. It is an opportunity not to be ignored.

While we are reaching out for more factories, more railroads, and more citizens, who is going to be the first to organize a company and build a college?

The "anti-spitting" ordinance is now a law. It is to be hoped it will be better enforced than the "anti-sweeping" ordinance. The other day an automobilist came near running down the mayor and an ordinance was immediately ordered requiring numbers on the autos so if it happens again the mayor can identify the culprit by his number. If someone would induce the mayor to walk down Broadway some morning between 7 and 8 o'clock and have dust and dirt swept into his face and on his clothing, as scores of other people have happened to them every day, he would probably take more pains to have the ordinance against it enforced. Because it is more convenient for porters and clerks to sweep the dust and dirt from stores to the street, is no reason they should be permitted to do it.

Warrants have been sworn out against a number of persons for obstructing the streets by keeping vehicles on them. This is the proper way to proceed. It is the only way. There are a good many people who care nothing for warnings or for the inconvenience to which they may put their neighbor or the general public, but if hauled up into police court and made to pay a fine, it quickly imbuces them with some respect for the rights of others. If warrants are taken out for sweeping trash every morning on Broadway and for filthy expectation in public places, these two evils can be quickly and effectually broken up.

Louisville has started a crusade against the myriads of poles along some of her streets. It is to be hoped she will succeed in having them moved. Here in Paducah the poles on Broadway, theoretically, at least, have been taken down. To stand at the foot of Broadway and glance down the street, however, one would never suspect it. The spectacle revealed forcibly demonstrates the difference between theory and practice.

This national convention business is being overdone. There is scarcely a day that there isn't a national gathering of some description somewhere. Down in Nashville they are holding a national meeting of secretaries of states. There were only four delegates present the first day, indicating that the American people are becoming too busy to "convene" so often.

Some idea of the opportunity for graft in Philadelphia may be had from the knowledge that Philadelphia must this year alone raise for current expenses $49,000,000. This is more money than the city of Paducah, at the present expense of running the government, would raise in 196 years.

GAS CO. ANNOUNCES IT WILL DECLINE THE LEASE.

Other Members of the Council Going Over to the Mayor's Side.

Philadelphia, Pa., May 27.—Following a meeting of directors of the United Gas Improvement Co., a communication was sent to the council announcing that the company would not now accept the proposed lease of the plant if it should be ratified.

A number of members of the council announced today that they would support the mayor's veto of the gas lease bill and others are expected to fall in line so the veto may be endorsed.

Even if it is not sustained, however, the action of the corporation today ends the controversy.

Out of respect to the late Justice Dean, whose funeral occurs Monday, the common pleas court continued the hearing of the injunction argument in the cases of the deposed directors against Mayor Weaver and his new appointees, until Wednesday.

TEXAS LOCAL OPTION.

Believed to Practically Be Wiped Out by a Late Decision.

Galveston, Tex., May 27.—A decision just rendered by the Texas court of criminal appeals practically sounds the death knell of local option, which is now in force in over 100 counties in this state. The new ruling is to the effect that shipments of liquor from a wet county or city in the state to a dry or local option county or city in the state is not in violation of the local option laws, provided the shipment is made at the risk of the purchaser.

In other words, the question of the sale of the liquor is established to be when the liquor is delivered to the railroad in the wet county or city, and not at the place of delivery to the purchaser. The decision is in the case of M. Keller vs. the state, from Hill county. Keller shipped a C. O. D. package of whiskey from West, a wet precinct, to a man in Hillsboro, which is under local option. The case has been bitterly fought by the liquor interests against the temperance organizations, and the best legal talent of several states has been retained in the case.

The liquor men have prepared for a vigorous campaign, and will establish agencies, with traveling salesmen, in every wet county and town in the state. The records show the beer traffic to have decreased over 60 per cent, and liquor traffic increased 43 per cent. In the local option counties of north Texas within the past thirteen months.

Clarksville Railway Company.
 Clarksville, Tenn., May 27.—A mortgage has been executed by the Clarksville Railway and Light Co. of Louisville, Ky., for improvement to the United States Trust company of Louisville, Ky., for improvement bonds amounting to $40,000 and extending for a term of forty years. It is understood that the company will at once begin the improvement of the present street car system and extend its lines to New Providence and Dunbar's Cave.

Mrs. Klein, wife of a shoemaker on lower Broadway, this afternoon called at police station and paid over $3 for a colored woman who washed the family linen last week. Mrs. Klein refused to pay the $3 when the clothes were delivered and the woman refused to reduce the price or let her have them, and complaint was made to the police. The clothes were taken to the city hall and kept pending a settlement of the controversy, which was ended only by paying what the woman charged.

IN THE COURTS

Circuit Court.

Laura Manuel has filed suit for divorce against Wm. Manuel on the grounds of a five years' separation. The motion for a new trial in the case of Daisy Ford against the Paducah City railway was overruled.

A judgment for sale was filed in the case of Mary E. Allison against W. C. Eubanks.

A general demurrer to the petition in the case of Brack Owen against the city of Paducah in which he seeks to prevent the city from collecting taxes on his island, was overruled this morning.

The evidence in the suit of Tom Harrison against the city of Paducah in which he seeks to recover about $600 back salary as city prosecuting attorney, was heard this morning but Judge Reed has reserved his decision.

County Court.

Judge Lightfoot has selected William A. Lawrence, Dick Davis and H. W. Hills as appraisers for the estate of the late Nathan Ramage.

The man and Lindsey deed to Wm. W. Jackson for $150, property in the Thurman-Lindsey addition to the city.

R. A. Wood has been appointed and qualified as administrator of the estate of H. W. Wood.

Charles Jones, aged 28, and Lillie May Dunbar, age 15, both of the city, have been licensed to wed. It will make the first marriage of the bride and second of the groom.

For Obstructing Streets.

The crusade against leaving wagons and buggies standing in the streets to endanger the public is now having some effect. The Sun a few days ago called attention to the fact that there were twenty-five wagons left one morning in one block on Jefferson street. Officers Rogers and Johnson late yesterday swore out a number of warrants for obstructing the streets in this way, the following being summoned to appear in court and show cause why they should not be fined: Roy Nelson, of Third and Clark streets; L. E. Girardeau, of Third and Kentucky avenue; Fletcher Terrell, of Third between Washington street and Kentucky avenue; Paducah Wagon Works, of Second and Washington; McGlathery Provision Grocery company, of Third and Jefferson, and Joe Harper.

Police Court.

The warrants against several persons charged with breach of ordinance in police court this morning, were continued until Monday, in order that Judge Sanders look up the new ordinance and see what fines might be imposed. They are charged with obstructing the pavements and streets by leaving vehicles and other obstructions out over a certain length of time. Most of them pleaded guilty to having left obstructions out, but claimed they did not have notice to remove or were ignorant of the law. The warrants were issued the result of complaints lodged by the board of public works with the mayor and police department.

Lizzie Cooper and Georgia Williams, colored, who, with Hermann Clements, are charged with false swearing, were granted a continuance. Clements is not yet under arrest.

Charles Buhr, white, was fined one cent and costs for whipping John McIntyre, a lad. It seems that the boy had thrashed Buhr's son without provocation and the father had interposed and thrashed the McIntyre boy.

Fred Gray and Sam Bohannon, white, charged with a breach of the peace, was granted a continuance.

Rube Guill, white, a "moocher," was released and given orders to leave the city. He stated he was a "Bad Man" from Texas.

Mystery Unraveled.

John Buford, colored, who watches for the Paducah baseball association at the Wallace park grounds, was awakened night before last by a sneak thief who had gotten into the club room and was taking away clothing. Buford struck him with a brick and he fell outside the house while trying to make his escape. A watch was left where he fell and Detectives Moore and Baker have it and think they will be able to find who the thief was. They will give out nothing definite but say they expect to unravel something in a day or two. Buford says the man talked in some foreign tongue when asked what he was doing.

Arrests Today.

Charlie McCarthy and Lloyd Rogers, the latter a street car motorman, had a difficulty this afternoon and were arrested. They will be given a hearing Monday in police court.

John Lincoln, white, was arrested today for drunkenness.

Since that time I have taken it for indigestion or whenever I felt overworked and in need of a tonic, and I have always found that it was of great benefit to me. I am therefore pleased and happy to say a word in its praise and shall gladly endorse it to my friends."—Mrs. J. P. Coady.

Since early womanhood I suffered with bearing down pains and nervousness. I was thin and worried, but Peruna restored me. Those who knew me before cannot understand the change, but I can sum it all up in the blessed word, Peruna."—Hattie Grace.

Mrs. Elizabeth Ferguson, No. 181 1st St., Brooklyn, N. Y., President West Brooklyn Audubon Society, writes: "I am pleased to tell what a blessing Peruna has been to me. Several years ago my constitution seemed broken down and I cared little whether I lived or died. I had taken so much medicine that the sight of a bottle made me sick. I had read about Peruna curing women, and I thought perhaps it would help me. I bought a bottle and before it was finished I felt better. I kept on taking it, and after three months' faithful use I was a well woman, able to do the work and undergo the strain of younger days."—Elizabeth Ferguson.

In view of the great multitude of women suffering from some form of female disease and yet unable to find any cure, Dr. Hartman, the renowned gynecologist, has announced his willingness to direct the treatment of as many cases as make application to him during the summer months without charge.

drop of the abdomen, should apply at once and become registered as regular patients. All correspondence will be held strictly confidential.

As is well known, Dr. Hartman is the president of The Hartman Sanitarium, an institution which has a department devoted exclusively to the treatment of female diseases. He is thus brought to see thousands of such cases every year, the most of whom return to their homes to be treated by correspondence. The principal remedy he relies upon in such cases is Peruna, which every woman should have who has any affection of this kind. Those wishing to become patients should address Dr. S. B. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio.

No one knows better than Dr. Hartman how much the women suffer with diseases peculiar to their sex. No one knows better than he does how many of them suffer with such diseases. Patiently, hopefully, wearily, and often silently, they eke out a miserable existence, year after year.

No martyr in poetry or heroine in romance makes a more touching appeal to human sympathy than the woman burdened with the cares of a family trying to carry the extra load of some tormenting and ever present female disease.

Dr. Hartman's sympathy for such is unbounded, and his willingness to help them limited only to his power.

ANOTHER ATTEMPT.

Prisoners in Smithland Jail Came Near Escaping Again.

John Wells, Jim Cowan and Bill Proctor, the three alleged murderers who escaped from the Livingston county jail three weeks ago and were all recaptured, made another attempt yesterday afternoon at Smithland. According to reports they took down a ventilation pipe in their cells and about 3 o'clock in the afternoon prised open the door of their cells with it and reached the corridor.

They then knocked off the lock of the door leading outside and were ready to leave the jail when Jailer Threlkeld arrived and drawing his pistol drove them back.

To the Confederate Veterans of Forrest's Cavalry.

By the special order of Lieut. Gen. Stephen D. Lee, commander of Confederate Veterans, at the approaching reunion in Louisville "Forrest's Cavalry Corps" will be organized as a separate and distinct corps, and will so march in the parade. At the meeting of this corps in Memphis, Tenn., on the 16th inst., on the occasion of the unveiling of Forrest's statue, I was appointed major general of the Kentucky division, to organize and command all the Kentucky veterans, who at any time served under Forrest's command. None are more deserving of this special honor than the Kentuckians of that command, who bore the brunt of every campaign and battle, and contributed your full share to every victory.

I am exceedingly anxious that they shall have a full representation in the parade.

My headquarters on, and after, the 13th of June, will be Room No. 217, Galt House, Louisville, Ky., and I will be personally very much gratified to have every one of our old command report to me there.

Respectfully,
H. A. TYLER, Hickman, Ky.

Capt. John E. Massengale, manager of the Chester and Tennessee river lines, announced yesterday that a new tariff would prevail to all landings between this city and Cape Girardeau and proceeded to cut the rates in half. The rates on hogs will be 15 cents a head; cattle 75 cents a head; eggs 10 cents a case; chickens 25 cents a coop and other freight in proportion. The reduction is the result of close competition between the Chester and the steamer Cape Girardeau of the Eagle Packet company.—Globe-Democrat.

SIR HENRY MORGAN, BUCCANEER

By CYRUS TOWNSEND BRADY,
Author of "The Southerners," "For Love of Country," "The Grip of Honor," Etc.

COPYRIGHT, 1905, BY G. W. DILLINGHAM COMPANY

As the soldier saw these fierce looking men spring before him out of the darkness he cried aloud. The next moment he was shot dead by Morgan himself. At the same instant a volley rang out at contact range, and every man in the party fell to the ground. Some were killed, others only wounded. All of them except Alvarado were injured in some way. He struck spurs into his horse when he heard the cry of "Fidriquo and the shot. The surprised barb plunged forward, was hit by half a dozen bullets, fell to the ground in a heap and threw his rider over his head. The Spaniard scrambled to his feet, whipped out his sword, lunged forward and drove his blade into the breast of old Velasco. The next instant a dozen weapons flashed over his head. One crashed upon his steel casque; another crashed against the polished breastplate that he wore. He cut out again in the darkness and once more fished his weapon.

Women's screams rose above the tumult. Beating back the swords which menaced him, although he was reeling from the blows which he had received, Alvarado strove to make his way toward Donna Mercedes when he was seized in the darkness from behind.

"Kill him," cried a voice in English, which Alvarado and Mercedes both understood perfectly. "He's the only one alive."

"Nay," cried another voice, stronger and sterner, "save him. We'll question him later. Did any escape?"

"Not one."

"Are there any horses alive?"

"Two or three."

"Bring them hither. Now back to the rest. Then we can show a light and see what we have captured. Teach, lead on. Let no harm come to the women."

"Aye, aye," answered another voice out of the darkness, and a third voice growled out:

"Hadn't we better make sure that none are alive to tell the tale?"

"Of course; a knife for the wounded," answered the stern voice, "and hear a hand."

Greatly surprised and unable to comprehend anything but that his men had been slaughtered and no harm had as yet befallen his charges, Alvarado, whose arms had been bound to his side, found himself dragged along in the wake of his captors, one or two of whom, mounted on the unwounded horses, with the two women between them, rode rapidly down the road.

CHAPTER XV.

ONE hundred yards or so beyond the place of the ambush the road dropped sharply over the last cliff to the narrow strait which led to the west wall of La Guayra, distant half a mile away. They had all been under the deep shadow of the thick trees overhanging the way until this instant, but in the faint light cast by the moon just risen Alvarado could see that a great body of people were congregated before him on the road. Who they were and what they were he could not surmise. He was not long left in doubt, however, for the same voice whose commanding tones had caused his life to be spared now called for lights. The demand was obeyed with a promptness that bespoke fear, indeed, or discipline of the sternest, and soon the captives found themselves in a circle of lurid light sent forth by a number of blazing torches. The illumination revealed to Alvarado as villainous and terrible looking a body of men as he had ever seen. The first glance convinced him that they were not Spanish brigands or robbers. He was too young to have had dealings with the buccaneers of the past generation, but he realized that if any such remained on this side of the earth they must be like these men who surrounded him. He wasted no time in surmises, however, for after the first swift comprehensive glance his eyes sought Mercedes. She sat her horse free and uninjured, apparently, for which he thanked God. She was leaning forward over her saddle and staring in bewilderment and surprise at the scene and confusion before her.

"Donna Mercedes," cried Alvarado, turning himself about in spite of his bonds and the restraint his immediate captors endeavored to put upon him, "are you safe—unhurt?"

"Safe," answered the girl. "And thou?"

"Well but for these bonds."

"God be thanked! Who are these men?"

"I know not, but—"

"Oh, sir," interrupted Señora Agapida, recovering her voice at the sound of the Spanish tongue. "What does this mean? Save us!"

"Señora," said that same sharp voice, but this time speaking in the Spanish tongue, as a tall man, hat in hand, urged his horse forward, "fear nothing; you shall be protected. And you, señorita. Do I not have the honor of addressing Donna Mercedes de Lara?"

"That is my name," answered the girl laughingly. "Who are you? Why have you shot my people and seized me prisoner?"

"For love of you, Mistress Mercedes."

"Just heaven! Who are you, I say?"

cried the girl at this startling answer, turning in surprise and terror to look upon his countenance.

"There was something familiar in the man's face that called up a vague recollection which she strove to master.

"Who are you?" she cried again.

"A free sailor, at your service, madam."

"My God!" cried Alvarado, who had listened attentively. "The buccaneer?"

"The same," answered Morgan, turning to him.

"Sir Harry Morgan! Were you not governor of Jamaica last year?" asked Mercedes in astonishment.

"I had that honor, lady."

"Why are you now in arms against us?"

"A new king, Mistress de Lara, sits the English throne. He likes me not. I and these gallant seamen are going to establish a kingdom in some sweet island in the south seas with our good swords. I would fain have a woman to bear me company on the throne. Since I saw you in Jamaica last year I have designed you for the honor."

"Monster!" screamed the girl, appalled by the hideous leer which accompanied his words. "Rather anything!"

"Sir," interrupted Alvarado, "you are an Englishman. Your past rank should warrant you a gentleman but for this. There is no war between England and Spain. What is the meaning of this outrage? This lady is the daughter of the viceroy of Venezuela. I am his captain and the comandante of yonder city of La Guayra. You have waylaid us, taken us at a disadvantage. My men are killed. For this assault will exact bloody reparation. Meanwhile give order that we be unbound, and let us pass."

"Ho, ho!" laughed the buccaneer. "Think you I fear the viceroy? Nay, not his majesty of Spain himself! I came here with set purpose to take La Guayra and then Caracas and to bear away with me this pretty lady upon whom, I repeat, I design to bestow the honor of my name."

As he spoke he leaned toward Mercedes, threw his arm around her waist and before she was even aware of his intention kissed her roughly on the cheek.

"Lads," he cried, "three cheers for the future Lady Morgan!"

The proud Spanish girl turned white as death under this insult. Her eyes flashed like coals of fire. Morgan was close beside her. She was without weapon save a jeweled whip that hung at her wrist. Before the first note of a cheer could break from the lips of the men she lifted it and struck him violently again and again full in the face.

"Thou devil!" cried the captain in fury, whipping out his sword and menacing her with it.

"Strike!" cried Mercedes bravely, "and let my blood wash out the insult that you have put upon my cheek!"

"Aye, the wench as well. Oh, I'll break your spirit, my pretty one," answered Morgan savagely, flipping the young woman's cheek. "Whit pay me blows for kisses? Scuttle me, you shall crawl at my feet before I've finished with you!"

"Why not kill this caballero out of hand, captain?" asked Hornigold, savage from a slight wound, as he leaped up to Morgan.

"No, I have use for him. Are the rest silent?"

"They will tell no tales," laughed L'Ollonnois grimly.

"Did none escape back up the road?"

"None, Sir Henry," answered the other. "My men closed in after them and drove them forward. They are all gone."

"That's well. Now for La Guayra. What force is there, Señor Captain?"

Alvarado remained obstinately silent. He did not speak even when Morgan ruthlessly cut him across the cheek with his dagger. He did not utter a sound, although Mercedes groaned in anguish at the sight of his torture.

"You'd best kill him, captain," said L'Ollonnois.

"No, I have need for him, I say," answered Morgan, giving over the attempt to make him speak. "Is any one here who has been at La Guayra recently?" he asked of the others.

"I was there last year on a trading ship of France," answered Sawkins.

"What garrison then?"

"About 250."

"Was it well fortified?"

"As of old, sir, by the forts on either side and a rampart along the sea wall."

"Were the forts in good repair?"

"Well kept, indeed, but most of the guns bore seaward."

THE LIVER QUARANTINE

"TAKING HIS MEALS OUT."

Hurried eating has ruined many a man's stomach. The digestion-destriving process is gradual, often unnoticed at first. But it is only a short time until the liver balks, the digestive organs give way, and almost countless ills assail the man who endeavors to economize time at the expense of his health.

A torpid liver causes a quarantine of the entire system. It locks in the diseased germs and body poisons and affords them full play, inviting some serious illness.

In families where August Flower is used, a sluggish liver and constipation are unknown, so are all stomach ailments, as well as indigestion, dyspepsia, heartburn, headaches and kidney and bladder affections. No well-regulated family should be without this standard remedy.

Two sizes, 25c and 75c. All druggists.

Sold by—

Alvey & List and G. C. C. Kolb.

Will overcome indigestion and dyspepsia; regulate the bowels and cure liver and kidney complaints. It is the best blood purifier and invigorator in the world. It is purely vegetable perfectly harmless and should you be a sufferer from disease, you will use it if you are wise.

Engineers' Conference Interrupted.

Engineer Joe McCann has returned from Chicago, where he went as a delegate from the local locomotive engineers to prepare a scale and contract for the ensuing year. Delegates from all over the system have been in session at Chicago for two or three weeks preparing this scale, but their work was temporarily stopped by the sudden illness of Mr. William Renshaw, superintendent of machinery for the Illinois Central. As soon as Mr. Renshaw recovers the work will be resumed.

A NOTRE DAME LADY'S APPEAL.

Three Days More of the May Sale

If you have any regard for your pocketbook you are bound to be more and more interested in the buying and selling going on in Paducah's biggest store. Nowhere can such values be found as in this store. Search the city over and then come here and make comparisons. We know what the result will be.

We are sorry that there are people who won't buy here because this store don't solicit credit trade, and has the courage to say so when asked to run an open account. Spot cash is an important consideration. It is nimble spot cash dollars that makes it possible for this store to make it a fixed rule to name uniformly low prices on all good, reliable, stylish merchandise.

When you buy here you don't help pay for the clothes that Mr. Poorpay wears and never pays for. Neither do you help pay the salaries of extra bookkeepers and collectors, nor the interest lost in tied-up accounts and slow debts.

This is a store of rapid turn-overs--of quick sales and small profits.

This is a store that believes it better for itself and for its customers to turn its dollars several times to make a net profit than to try to make a big profit selling high and turning slow.

This store's cash buying and cash selling keeps it always ready to buy any extraordinary bargains that manufacturers may offer it. A glove manufacturer just the other day sold us about five hundred dollars worth of gloves at a big sacrifice. When the season comes for these gloves they will go to you at a correspondingly low price. Thus this store uses its cash to buy bargains for its customers and is run in the interest of its many patrons.

Our cash buying and cash selling methods makes it possible to make every month in the year a bargain month in some one or all of its departments. We have done some great buying of mid-summer goods for June selling. There will be profit to you and to others in buying here during the summer months.

Two important shipments of women's and misses' stylish Mohair Skirts have just reached us. These skirts are the tailor made. This means that they are better made, better hanging and better looking than you will find skirts around town generally. Misses' skirts of excellent quality at $3.00. Women's skirts, stylish and dependable, at $3.50, $4.00, $4.50, $5.00, $5.50, $6.00 and $6.50. The colors are black, pretty blues and browns.

KENTUCKY NEWS TOLD IN PARAGRAPHS

Cases Transferred.
Jackson, Ky., May 27.—Motion for change of venue in case against Mose Felner, charged with killing Jesse Fields, was disposed of. The Commonwealth made no objection to the motion and Judge Riddle entered an order granting the change and transferred the case to the Estill circuit court. The cases against Sam Jett, for arson, and Samuel Fields for confederating were each transferred to the Lee circuit court.

Waylaid and Murdered.
Middleburg, Ky., May 27.—William Cundiff, who, several years ago, shot and killed T. T. Bradshaw, in Adair county, was waylaid and murdered near Rowena, Russell county. His body was found in the road riddled with buckshot.

School Superintendent Quits.
Hopkinsville, Ky., May 27.—Prof. J. B. Taylor has tendered his resignation as superintendent of the Hopkinsville public schools to the board of trustees, to take effect at the closing of the present session next week. The resignation comes as a complete surprise, as Prof. Taylor has been superintendent here for the past three years and had given general satisfaction, and the schools had grown materially under his supervision. Prof. Taylor has not yet announced what he will do, but it is understood that he has another lucrative position in view. He came here from Middlesboro and has made many friends since he has been a resident of the city, who regret to hear of his resignation.

State Capitol Contract.
Frankfort, Ky., May 27.—The members of the state capital commission intend advertising for bids for the erection of the building at once. It is understood that the commission desires to give out the entire contract to one firm, thus escaping the petty annoyances that would ensue if a number of contractors were at work on the building.

Heaviest Rain in Years.
Hopkinsville, Ky., May 27.—The heaviest rain for the past decade fell here Friday night, beginning about 8 o'clock and lasting until 11. The rain literally fell in sheets, there being a total precipitation of four inches. All water courses are greatly swollen, but as yet no damage has been reported. Growing crops were beaten down considerably, but will survive without serious damage.

Death in Graves.
Mayfield, Ky., May 27.—Esquire W. Benjamin Cook died at his home in Southwest Mayfield of throat trouble, aged 64.

He leaves a wife and one daughter, Mrs. Arthur West, of near Boydsville. Mr. Cook was an ex-Confederate soldier, and was born on a farm near Boydsville and lived there until four years ago when he moved with his wife to Mayfield.

Death in Calloway.
Murray, Ky., May 27.—Mrs. Alice Clark, the wife of Mr. Charles Clark, died near Kirksey, of cancer of the stomach. She was about 35 years of age and leaves four children.

Henderson After the Encampment.
Frankfort, Ky., May 27.—A delegation from Henderson composed of Charles Dallam, W. Powell Taylor, Judge J. H. Hart, Judge E. H. Walker, Representative J. T. Wilson and Clarence Dallam, and L. J. Garrett, of Louisville, called at the state executive department to see Governor Beckham and Adj. Gen. Haly to urge the selection of Henderson for the state guard encampment this year. The delegation urged that the encampment can be held there at less expense to the state than at any other point in Western or Southern Kentucky. They offered Atkinson Park, a beautiful spot on the Ohio river, and all equipment for a camp site.

Another Bank for Bowling Green.
Bowling Green, Ky., May 27.—Within the next twenty days Bowling Green is to have its sixth bank. The Bowling Green National bank at the head of which are Mr. L. O. Cox and Mr. Allen White, of Louisville.

PADUCAH VETERANS TO DECORATE GRAVES OF DEPARTED COMRADES

In the absence of regular memorial services here, a number of old veterans who contended on both sides in the struggle of '61-'64, will assemble at Oak Grove cemetery at 3 o'clock p. m. next Monday the 29th inst., and place flags on the graves of all ex-soldiers.

This beautiful practice has been kept up for many years. It was a pathetic sight last year to see grizzled old ex-Federals and ex-Confederates arm in arm, silently wending their way through the silent city of the dead, shedding a sympathetic tear, and placing flags on the graves of ville, and several local capitalists, today leased the room occupied by Mayor George T. Wilson as a drug store. Mr. Wilson's lease does not expire until the first of January, but the bank will open temporary quarters in another part of the Neale building and promises to begin business within twenty days.

Charged With Horse Stealing.
Henderson, Ky., May 27.—James Watson, Ira Walters and Tom Ray Murrell, fishermen, were arrested here on a charge of horse stealing. A horse belonging to John Feiz, on the Indiana side of the river, swam over to Towhead Island and was caught by the men. They claim that in attempting to place the horse on a flatboat to return it, it fell and broke its neck, whereupon they skinned and sold its hide.

Formerly Lived in Mayfield.
Mayfield, Ky., May 27.—Dr. J. L. Dismukes, Sr., is in receipt of a letter from Mr. Sam Norman, who is traveling in Arkansas, announcing the death of his cousin Wednesday night, Dr. E. I. Wortham, a former prominent citizen of Mayfield. He was about 65 years of age and lived here many years ago and located in Hot Springs, Ark., where he was living at the time of his death.

Oil and Gas.
Cloyd's Landing, Ky., May 27.—At a depth of 370 feet the Greensburg Oil and Gas company "brought in" their Graves well No. 9, which is making 300 barrels of oil a day. This "strike" is much better than was expected and has caused a general revival of interest in the oil industry here. A number of new wells will be drilled.

Confessed Judgment.
Louisville, Ky., May 27.—Ed Alvey, the pool room owner and turfman, who was sued by State Revenue agents for back taxes on a valuation of $50,000, confessed judgment on $15,000.

Former Constable Hurt.
Wickliffe, Ky., May 27.—While at work for the Illinois Central Railroad company at Baytown, Jeff Davis, former constable for this district and a first-class citizen of Ballard county, was dangerously hurt by being thrown under a moving train. He was assisting in unloading a car of rock ballast and while holding to a bar of iron attached to a cable, by which means the car was unloaded, Mr. Davis, not being heavy enough to hold the bar, was thrown under the train, which was slowly backing. His companions thought that he would be run over and killed and turned their backs to keep from seeing the awful sight; but the victim had strength and presence of mind enough to extricate himself before being run over by the car wheels, though he was dragged several feet. The wounds were at first thought to be fatal, but he is now recovering.

Shooting in Lyon.
Eddyville, Ky., May 27.—A shooting scrape occurred in Lyon county near Saratoga in which Joe Bell received a bullet wound in the breast departed comrades. No question was asked as to which side in the great conflict they fought. It was enough to know they were soldiers and risked their lives on the battlefield for honest convictions thus proving their gallantry and indelibly stamping their acts of self-denial and heroism on the minds of an appreciative people.

It is hoped all ex-soldiers in the city, and their friends, will turn out, and by their presence pay tribute of respect to the departed heroes. Flags in sufficient numbers have already been secured.

and arm from a pistol in the hands of Marion Dillingham. It was reported that the trouble came up at a partnership plant bed, and that Dillingham while drawing plants from same, was ordered by Joe Bell to leave the bed. This Dillingham refused to do, whereupon Bell struck him in the head with a chunk or something of the kind. Dillingham then went away, procured a pistol and returned to the plant bed where Bell was, and shot him with the above result.

The wound, while serious, is not considered dangerous. Dillingham went to Eddyville where he gave himself up to the county authorities.

HOW FAR A PITCHER TRAVELS.

Did you ever stop to consider how far a pitcher travels during a game? asks the St. Louis Post-Dispatch. The pitcher is not only the pivot around which the whole game revolves, but he has one of the most arduous physical positions on the team.

Not only are cunning curves and control necessities to the successful prosecution of his work as a boxman, but he must have a physique and constitution proof against fatigue.

Many think that because a pitcher officiates in only one or two games a week he has a sinecure and they point to the old-timers, Clarkson, Richmond, Matthews, Radbourne, Sweeney, Goldsmith and Bradley and tell wonderful tales of their prodigious pitching feats, but let us not forget that we have our heroes today as well as the older fans had theirs.

Many toss bouquets at the short-stop as the busiest man in the game, while others lament because full credit is not given to the man behind the bat, but one of the most strenuous men on the team, as shown by actual figures, is the pitcher.

In Wednesday's game at Sportsman's Park a tabulated account was kept of the number of feet Barney Peltz traveled in the nine innings he served the ball up to the Highlanders.

The compilation was started the moment Peltz entered the box and pitched the first ball to Dougherty and it ended when he threw the ball in the ninth that struck Yeager out.

Every time he took a step in the box while pitching the ball he was credited with covering four and one-half feet of ground; this was while in the posture of delivering the ball, and as immediately afterward he would step toward the plate he would traverse more ground, these distances varied, and they were added for the actual amount of ground covered.

No account was kept of how often he would use his arm, or of his running on his two hits, nor was any credit given him for the ground he traveled in going to and from the bench. The calculations were simply made of the actual number of feet he traveled while in the pitcher's box and in fielding or attempting to field a batted ball or throw.

The recapitulation showed that he covered 3,823 feet, or three-quarters of a mile, and this will go far to explain why pitchers do not last longer than four or five years.

Think of the burden of worry and trouble carried for this three-quarters of a mile!

How would you like to be a pitcher?

THE MAYOR'S INEXCUSABLE DELAY CAUSES RUIN OF HIGH SCHOOL FLOWERS

The town cow made her appearance in a new quarter last night and seemed to have picked out about the best place in the city to feed on delicacies, and as a result the new flower beds in the High school yard are greatly damaged, if not ruined, by her attack.

Yesterday two new flower beds made this week by colored gardeners at the expense of the pupils, who took up a collection, were completed and the flowers planted. A nice flower bed was made in the center of each side and improved the yards a great deal. Last night cows invaded the yard and ate most of the flowers and trampled down the mounds which had been nicely smoothed and leveled.

Teachers and pupils who saw the havoc wrought with their pretty flowers this morning were very indignant and stated they hoped Mayor Yeiser would not longer delay signing the cow ordinance but would make it a law and see that it is enforced.

Mechanicsburg Revival.

The East Baptist church revival in Mechanicsburg is increasing in interest and the Rev. T. E. Ritchey is well pleased with the results thus far attained. He is assisted by the Rev. H. B. Taylor, of Murray. Last night the sermon was on "The Wages of Sin is Death." At the conclusion of services the congregation was asked to remain and sign a remonstrance against a saloon proposed to be started on Clements street, and nearly all attached their signatures to the document, which will be presented to the council Monday night, as an argument against granting a license.
